THE wedding of Miss Elsie Douglas Hamilton, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Robert S. Hamilton, of Staunton, to Mr. Eric Lee Norton, son of Major and Mrs. Augustus Norton, of Athens, O., was celebrated at 8:30 o'clock yesterday evening, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Scherer, of 2717 Grove Avenue, the Rev. J. J. Scherer, Jr., officiating.

The entire lower floor of the house was artistically decorated with palms, flowers and smilax, the color scheme being developed with masses of white and yellow daisies.

The wedding march was played by Miss Mattie Sreckish, of Staunton. Little Helen, Hamilton and Louis Scherer, niece and nephews of the bride, formed the ribbon aisle, extending through the long parlors to the altar, of palms and flowers, erected in the arched window of the front drawing-room.

Little Miss Martha Seal, bearing the ring in a calla lily and wearing white with yellow ribbons, led the bridal procession. She was followed by the matron of honor and sister of the bride, Mrs. L. L. Scherer, who wore pale yellow liberty satin and carried yellow daisies, tied with tulle of the same shade. The groom awaited the bride at the altar with his best man, Mr. William H. Norton, of the Johns Hopkins University.

The bride was attired in a white crepe de chine built on tulle, hand-somely paneled with hand embroidery and trimmed with a lace berthe. Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley and her veil was held in place with spray of the same fragrant blossoms. The little ribbon-bearers, dressed in white, with soft yellow ribbons and ties, made a charming picture.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held. Mrs. Scherer was assisted by Miss Mattie Brown Allen, Miss Alice Norton, sister of the groom; Miss Lota Watts, of Staunton, and Miss Mary Graham Cameron, of Goshen, Va.

Mrs. Norman Black, of Roncesville, W. Va., and Mrs. J. J. Scherer, Jr., of Richmond, presided at the punch-bowl. The table was tastefully decorated in yellow and white, the centerpiece being a basket of daisies tied with yellow tulle. The cakes, bonbons and loaves carried out the white and gold idea.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton left last evening to spend their honeymoon in the West. After July 15th, they will reside at 2405 Park Avenue.

Cheverton-Watkins.
In Bethel Baptist Church, Chesterfield county, last evening at 9 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Martha Lela Watkins, of Middleburg, Va., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Watkins, to Mr. Winifred Cheverton, of Ashland, Va., son of Mr. R. C. Cheverton, took place, the Rev. R. H. Winifred performing the ceremony.

The color scheme was in pink and white. A series of arches, in green with white flowers, spanned the aisles. The pulpit was banked with palms and lilies and the lights were shaded with pink. Mr. W. F. Kirk, of Richmond, directed the music.

The ribbons were carried by Virginia and Alice Watkins, sister and cousin of the bride. Other attendants included Mrs. John Hunter Martin, of Richmond; Jack Cheverton, of Ashland; Kirk Watkins, of Newwood; Ben and John Watkins, brothers of the bride. The maids of honor were Misses Eva White, of New York, and Neville Watkins, sister of the bride. Howard

Baker, of Hallsboro, was ring-bearer.

The bride came in with her father. She wore white net over tulle, with a garniture of Irish point and valencien lace. The groom's gift, a sunburst of pearls and diamonds, held her lace veil, otherwise caught with orange blossoms.

Her flowers were lilies of the valley and orchids. Miss White was gowned in green chiffon over tulle, elaborately trimmed with ribbon and lace, and carried pink sweet peas.

Miss Watkins was attired in pink silk tulle and also carried pink sweet peas. The flower girls, Alice and Virginia Watkins, wore white and pink chiffon frocks and carried white and pink roses.

A reception was tendered the bridal party and guests from a distance at the home of the bride, immediately after the ceremony, after which the bride and groom left amidst a shower of rice and congratulations. They will be gone for several days on a northern trip. The bridal gifts were numerous and handsome.

Among the guests from a distance were: Miss Louise Cheverton, of Ashland; Miss Katherine Taylor, Manchester; Miss Willie Thornton, of Pamplin City; Miss Carrie Mason, of Mattoax; Miss Pattie Hobson and friend, of Belona; Mrs. W. F. Kirk, of Richmond; Mrs. Katie Watkins, of Richmond; Mrs. Fustace Lawton, of Michaux; Mrs. J. H. Hobson, of Belona; Miss Catherine Cross, of Richmond; Misses Lancaster, of Ashland; Mr. A. J. Cheverton, of Richmond; Mr. R. C. Cheverton, of Ashland; Dr. B. H. Martin, of Richmond; Mr. A. B. Gathright, of Richmond; Mr. J. H. Hobson, of Belona; Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Watkins, of Richmond; Mr. W. F. Kirk, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Watkins and daughter, Miss Edith Watkins, of Richmond.

Goodwyn-Powell.
Miss Anabelle Jenkins Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Powell, was married at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon to Mr. Edward Everard Goodwyn, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Goodwyn, the ceremony being performed in the Methodist Church at Emporia by the Rev. F. G. Davis, of the Methodist Church, assisted by the Rev. Charles Woodson, of Norfolk.

The church was handsomely decorated in palms and cut flowers. Miss Alice Burgess, of Suffolk, played the wedding marches and "Tauxemerie" during the ceremony. Miss Drewry, of Norfolk, sang several beautiful selections while the guests were assembling.

The bride was attended by Miss Matilda W. Powell, her maid of honor; Mrs. W. A. Carrigan, of Society Hill, S. C., the dame of honor, and by Misses Mary, Ellen and Lucy Powell and Lauree Lee Briggs, of Emporia, her bridesmaids. Messrs. Janie M. Potter and Lucy Davis were the flower girls.

Mr. E. Peyton Turner, of Emporia, was best man, and the groomsmen were: Messrs. Howard W. Hall, E. C. Palmer, P. V. D. Jones, P. W. Turner, Meade Goodwyn, G. H. Harrison, Dr. J. H. Smith and Judge L. D. Yprell, of Emporia; Mr. L. T. Doble, of Norfolk, and Edward Norfleet of Suffolk.

The bride came in with her father. She wore a lace robe trimmed with real lace, a tulle veil, and carried lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was in hand embroidered French baliste trimmed with baby Irish point and worn over yellow tulle. The dame of honor had on yellow silk baliste and lace, and the bridesmaids white baliste and German val. All wore picture hats trimmed with yellow roses and lace, yellow gloves and girdles, and carried yellow daisies tied with chiffon.

A reception was given in the bride's home after the ceremony, and many handsome gifts were displayed. Mr. and Mrs. Goodwyn will spend their honeymoon in New York and at Atlantic City.

Box Party for Barones.

Priest-Hardy.

NORFOLK, VA., June 24.—At St. Luke's Episcopal Church to-night at 8:30, Miss Ethel Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Hardy, became the bride of Mr. John Murry Priest.

It was one of the prettiest June weddings of the season. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. David W. Howard, the rector.

The maid of honor was Miss Ethel Elkins, of Germantown, and Mrs. John W. Oast, Jr., was the matron of honor. Mr. Walter Irving Priest, brother of the groom, was the best man. The other bridesmaids were Miss Kate Hardy, Miss Virginia Jordan, of Suffolk; Miss Sue Gray, of Richmond; Miss Marie L. Taylor, of Worcester, Mass.; Miss Doris Elkins, of Germantown, and Miss Sallie Peables. The ushers were Messrs. Willis Cuipeper, Garnett Jordan, A. B. Schwarzkof, Brandon Vandevanter, Fenton F. Priest and Harry Priest.

Following the ceremony at the church the bridal party, out-of-town and intimate friends repaired to the home of the bride's parents, on Boush Street, where an informal reception was held. The bridal tour will include a number of Eastern and Northern cities. Mr. and Mrs. Priest will reside in Richmond.

Fox-Gravatt.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CALICO, VA., June 24.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gravatt was the scene of a very pretty but quiet wedding to-day at 4 P. M. The contracting parties were Miss Sallie Gwathmey Gravatt and Mr. W. Elliott Fox, of Wilmington, N. C. The officiating ministers were Dr. W. H. Whitsett, of Richmond, and Rev. R. W. Fox, father of the groom.

The bridal party entered the room to the soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Hilda Day, of Richmond.

The bride was becomingly attired in white chiffon over tulle, and wore white picture hat and carried bride roses. She was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Arthur B. Gravatt. Miss Evelyn Gravatt, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a white lingerie dress and carried pink sweet peas.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Curtis E. Gresham, of Washington, D. C., wore white point d'eprit over tulle and carried carnations.

Mr. Edward Fox, of Richmond, brother of the groom, was best man, and the other groomsmen were Mr. Temple Bowles, of Epworth, and Mr. White Dabney, of Luther.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gravatt and has many friends who regret that her new home will be in another State. The groom is a prominent young business man of Wilmington, N. C.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fox left for their future home in Wilmington, N. C.

Overcash-Snyder.
